

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lloyd George, son and daughter-in-law of the great British statesman, who are visiting America.

Mrs. Maurice Hewlett, wife of the novelist, latest candidate for transatlantic flying honors. Not only is she a skilled flier, but she owns an airplane factory. Photograph shows her at work on a plane.

Photo: Gilliams.

At Left—This is the first portrait of W. E. "Pussyfoot" Johnson, since he started using his glass eye. The American prohibition advocate lost the optic when hazed by an English mob.

Perfume Your Home with Incense

There are few things as characteristic of the fascination and mystery of the beauty-loving lands beyond the Pacific, as that so thoroughly satisfies the aesthetic taste and imagination, as Valentine's Temple Incense. Its dreamy, soothing fragrance brings to mind the rose blossoms, the brilliant sunlight, the purple shades of the Orient—the enchantment of strange Far Eastern countries—the white, languorous scents of tropical gardens and of blossoms-laden banyan trees from pain-fringed islands off Japanese seas.

Captain's Temple Incense, Burner and Sets are sold by the best drug merchants. Should your dealer not have them, as well as incense you should inquire of your local Valentine's Incense and Burner, 21 and 22 East 34th Street, New York, and S.C.C. Burner, 106 W. 23rd Street.
